

Financial Markets Daily

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets negative, government bond yields mixed and USD with losses, as investors' reactions continue highly dependent on economic data that will help the Federal Reserve to define the path forward on cutting rates
- Regarding economic figures, in the US the preliminary durable goods orders report for April was published at +0.7% m/m, after the consensus expected a decline, but below the previous +0.9%
- Additionally, final May consumer sentiment figures from the University of Michigan will also be released. Federal Reserve Waller will talk about the neutral rate
- In Germany, the final GDP for 1Q24 was in line with estimates at 0.2% q/q after the 0.5% q/q drop in the previous quarter
- In Mexico, INEGI released April's trade balance, posting a US$2,746.2 million deficit. Exports fell 2.6% m/m (11.4% y/y), noting generalized declines. Imports contracted 0.4% m/m (15.4% y/y), dragged by the oil component. Later, 1Q24 current account balance figures will be released

Equities

- Widespread profit-taking in main stock indexes, on the expectation that interest rates may remain high for longer
- Nonetheless, futures in the US anticipate a positive opening, with the S&P500 trading 0.3% above its theoretical value, reacting to the declines seen yesterday. Some companies in the technology sector and those related to semiconductors such as Micron Technology, Microchip Technology and AMD, advance on the bullish sentiment about Artificial Intelligence, following Nvidia's extraordinary results
- In Europe, the declines average around -0.5%, while in Asia the Hang Seng adjustment of -1.4% stood out. In Mexico, the Mexbol Index closed below 56,000pts, and could approach 55,700pts due to the caution and volatility that could continue ahead of the June 2 elections

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Modest pressures in sovereign bonds, with losses of 1-2bps for 10-year European benchmarks, while the US curve also adjusts +1bp from the 2-year area onwards. After strong economic data and the minutes, the market is now pricing the first Fed rate cut in December and accumulated cuts of -35bps for the whole year
- USD indices fall, though head for a weekly gain of 0.5% in the BBDXY, its strongest in one month and a half. Most developed currencies gain and balance in EM is also favorable with European pairs at the top. MXN appreciates 0.2% to 16.68
- Oil with modest losses and near its lowest level in 3 months. Sentiment has deteriorated recently amid possible weaker demand. Gold stable and copper closing with its strongest weekly sell-off since February, at ~2.5%

Corporate Debt

- Fibra Shop informed that it signed the corresponding deeds for the acquisition of the Sentura Tlalnepantla commercial property. The property is located in Tlalnepantla de Baz, State of Mexico, and has a gross rentable area of 32,067m2
- S&P Global Ratings placed Vinte Viviendas Integrales (Vinte) on Special Development Review following the announcement of its agreement to acquire Javier. According to the agency, the transaction, if completed, has the potential to strengthen the company's business position in Mexico. Vinte has not disclosed details about the potential closing timeframe, nor how it will finance the MXN 4.29 billion transaction. Although it publicly stated that it could do so through a mix of new equity and long-term financings

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1 % of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

The Analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. do not maintain direct investments or through an intermediary person, in the securities or derivative instruments object of this analysis report.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.

The information contained hereby has been obtained from sources that we consider to be reliable, but we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. The information, estimations and recommendations included in this document are valid as of the issue date, but are subject to modifications and changes without prior notice; Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. does not commit to communicate the changes and also to keep the content of this document updated.
