

Financial Markets Daily

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets positive, government bond yields mixed, and the USD higher (with the MXN leading losses). The reaction comes after Donald Trump's victory in the US presidential election
- Based on announced results and projections from several news networks, Donald Trump has won the US presidency –with relevant victories in the swing states of Georgia, Pennsylvania, and Wisconsin. Harris' concession speech is expected to occur throughout the morning. Also, very significant (and as expected), the Republicans will have control of the Senate, while the House of Representatives is still undecided
- On the monetary front, in the afternoon we expect a 50bps hike to the reference rate by the Bank of Brazil to 11.25%. During the day, we will be watching the decision in Poland, where no change is expected at 5.75%. Finally, we will also have a speech by ECB president Christine Lagarde, this morning
- In economic data, final services PMIs in Germany and the Eurozone were revised marginally higher, both at 51.6pts. With this, composite indicators also showed an improvement. In the evening, we will be watching China's October trade balance
- In Mexico, we will be following the presentation of the Energy Plan for the electricity sector by the new administration

Equities

- Positive variations in the stock markets. Changes in the composition of MSCI indices effective in the November 26th rebalancing will be announced at the close of trading today
- US futures point to an upward opening with the S&P 500 up 2.3%. Tesla shares rise 13.0% reacting positively to the election result. Similarly, shares of major banks rally on expectations of a looser regulatory backdrop (Wells Fargo +9.0%, Bank of America +8.2%, Citi +8.0%)
- Of 28 S&P 500 companies reporting today, 7 have released their results, most of them better than expected, including CVS Health. In Mexico, Asur's passenger traffic declined 2.4% y/y in October, while Gap's posted a 0.8% y/y decrease

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Sharp steepening in the US Treasury curve, with the long end rising as much as 20bps. Short-term yields are also facing upward pressures, though the market discount for the Fed maintains the expectation of a 25bps rate cut tomorrow. European bonds are experiencing more limited upward pressures, with some regions even seeing slight gains
- The USD is on track for its strongest session since the 2020 pandemic, as evidenced by the increase in the BBDXY. The Mexican peso leads global losses with a 2.5% depreciation to 20.61 per dollar, reaching up to 20.80 intraday. Both EM and G10 currencies are broadly weaker, with the EUR dropping notably 2%
- USD strength is weighing on commodities, with energy and metals both declining. Gold is down 1.6% but remains relatively defensive compared to steeper drops in copper (-4%)

Corporate Debt

- HR Ratings affirmed the rating of issue ACOSTCB 15 (Grupo Acosta Verde's ABS) at 'HR AAA (E)' with Stable outlook. The ratification is based on the maximum drop in collections of 40.8% (vs. 51.0% in the previous review) that the structure could withstand to continue meeting its financial obligations; this from a decrease in the occupancy factor of up to 59.1%.
- HR Ratings affirmed the ratings for Nueva Elektra del Milenio's Senior Notes in local scale of 'HR AA+ (E)' and in global scale of 'HR BBB (G)(E)', both with Stable outlook. The rating is based on Grupo Elektra's credit rating, given its support, combined with the solid coverage levels in accordance with the Notes' structure

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1 % of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

None of the members of the Board of Grupo Financiero Banorte and Casa de Bolsa Banorte, along general managers and executives of an immediately below level, have any charges in the issuers that may be analyzed in this document.

The Analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. do not maintain direct investments or through an intermediary person, in the securities or derivative instruments object of this analysis report.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.
