Financial Markets Daily

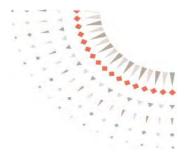

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets showing small changes, government bond yields positive, and the USD stable, with little trading volumes due to the holiday. Investors keep evaluating future Fed actions after Friday's employment report and with some mixed corporate news
- Markets closed through most of Europe due to Easter Monday. Regarding the economic agenda, attention in the US to consumer credit and China's inflation
 (mar) tonight. Decision from the Bank of Korea, expecting the rate unchanged at 3.50%. IMF and World Bank spring meetings begin today in Washington D.C., expecting the release of the World Economic Outlook (WEO) on Tuesday
- In the remainder of the week attention will remain on economic data and the start of the corporate earnings season. We highlight the release of CPI and retail sales in the US (mar) as well as results from the main financial institutions on Friday. Regarding monetary policy, we note minutes from the Fed –as well as comments from several Fed speakers– and Banxico. We will also have decisions in Canada and Peru, not expecting rate changes in either one
- We highlight the visit from President Joe Biden to Ireland in the 25th anniversary of the 'Good Friday' agreement. France's Constitutional Council will review the pension reform introduced by Emmanuel Macron. On Wednesday the meeting of G-20 finance ministers and central bankers begins
- The US data agenda also includes industrial production, producer prices (Mar), and the University of Michigan's consumer sentiment (Apr). In other regions we highlight China's trade balance (Mar), retail sales in the Eurozone (Feb) and CPI in Brazil (Mar). In Mexico we highlight industrial production (Feb), ANTAD sales, wage negotiations, and auto sector data (Mar)

Equities

- The week kicks off with mixed performances in equity markets, with investors weighing the start of 1Q23 earnings season and the outlook for economic growth.
 Meanwhile, trading volumes remain low, with markets in Europe, Hong Kong, and Australia closed for Easter Monday
- With this, US futures anticipate a lower opening, with the S&P500 trading 0.5%, slightly below its theoretical value and the Nasdaq -0.8%. In Asia, the Nikkei advanced 0.4% led by the consumer discretionary sector. Finally, in Mexico, the Mexbol Index could hover around 53,800pts
- On the corporate front, eleven S&P500 companies will release their results this week, with figures from BlackRock, Citigroup, JP Morgan, and Wells Fargo on Friday

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Treasuries advance 4bps, on average, and the 2-year benchmark trades at 3.94%. In addition, European market will be closed today. Locally, Mbonos' curve recorded a flattening bias during the short week as a result of 12bps rally at the long-end and few changes at the short-end
- Dollar began the week with gains amid widespread losses in developed currencies where JPY (-0.8%) is the weakest. In EM, the bias is also negative except for IDR (+0.1%). Moreover, MXN trades at 18.14 per dollar (0.0%), after a 0.5% weekly depreciation
- Crude-oil prices steady near to 80 $/bbl, after a 7% rally driven by the OPEC and allies' unexpected output cut. This week, market attention will be on the OPEC and IEA monthly reports

Corporate Debt

- CIBanco (Trustee) informed GICSA's intention to carry out a partial early payment of its issuances on April 14, 2023. GICSA 15 series will be amortized for MXN 12.87 million; GICSA 17 for MXN 21.22 million; and GICSA 19 for MXN 61.94 million. GICSA 15 / 17 / 19 issuances have an outstanding amount of MXN 4.03 billion and their maturities scheduled for 2027, 2028, and 2027, respectively. The issuer and the bonds are rated at 'mxB' by S&P Global
- Fitch Ratings downgraded ION Financiera's rating to 'BBB- (mex)' from 'BBB (mex)'. The Rating Outlook was revised to Stable from Negative. According to the agency, the rating downgrade is based on sustained losses recorded in the last three years despite the entity's strategic changes. This resulted in high operating expenses not yet offset by current revenue generation

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1 % of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.

The information contained hereby has been obtained from sources that we consider to be reliable, but we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. The information, estimations and recommendations included in this document are valid as of the issue date, but are subject to modifications and changes without prior notice; Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. does not commit to communicate the changes and also to keep the content of this document updated.
