Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets and government bond yields mixed, with the USD strengthening following the ECB's policy decision and US retail sales , but with still concerns about rising oil prices amid warnings of supply shortfalls and possible inflationary pressures
- The ECB increased its reference rates for a tenth consecutive meeting, in this occasion by +25bps, with the main refinancing rate standing at 4.50%. The statement remained hawkish, with attention turning to Lagarde's speech regarding future actions. In China, the implementation of stimulus measures continues. For a second time this year, the government announced a cut in the banks' reserve requirement ratio (-25bps), aiming to boost lending capacity and facilitate the absorption of government bonds
- Regarding economic figures, in the US, August's retail sales surprised to the upside at 0.6% m/m. Later, data on industrial production, retail sales and gross fixed investment in China for August will be released, with consensus expecting a slight acceleration in the first two items
- China accuses the European Union of 'naked protectionism' measures in the EV market, and will launch an investigation that may impact negatively its commercial relationship

Corporate Debt

- Fitch Ratings ratified Banco Monex and Monex's rating at 'AA-(mex)' and revised the outlook to Positive from Stable. According to the agency, the Positive outlook reflects Fitch's opinion on the strengthening of the bank's credit quality in relation to other issuers in Mexico, since it has maintained above-average profitability in relation to its local peers, which has supported good capital metrics that help offset the risks of the bank's concentrated business model
- HR Ratings ratified the ratings of Comercializadora Círculo CCK at 'HR A+' with a Stable outlook and 'HR2' for the short term. According to the agency, the ratification is based mainly on the observed Free Cash Flow (FCF) generation, which was in line with its expectations
