

Financial Markets Daily

Main drivers for the financial markets today...

- Stock markets positive, government bond yields down and USD up. Investors are awaiting economic data to further tune their expectations on the path of monetary policy. Moderate reaction to the four-day truce between Israel and Hamas to free hostages and prisoners
- Oil falls on signs of higher US production. Investors will be watching EIA inventories as they speculate on OPEC+'s next moves
- In the US, mortgage rates dropped sharply. The contract rate on a 30-year fixed mortgage decreased 20bp to 7.41% last week. This led to an increase in the index of home-purchase applications of 3.9% in the week ending November 17, the most since June
- The agenda in the US includes October durable goods orders, November final figures for the University of Michigan consumer sentiment, and jobless claims for the week ending November 18. In the Eurozone consumer confidence for November will be released
- In Mexico, INEGI published September's retail sales, down 0.2% m/m (+2.3% y/y). 5 out of the 9 sectors fell, with weakness centered in office and leisure (-8.1% m/m) and internet sales (-5.6%)

Equities

- Stock markets mixed, with positive bias, reflecting caution among investors as they are assessing the economic outlook and the latest earnings results
- Futures in the US anticipate a slightly positive opening with the Nasdaq rising 0.4% above its theoretical value. Although Nvidia remains little changed on pre-market and beat analysts' average estimates, the company suggested some selling pressure from China due to US restrictions
- Europe trades mainly with gains and the Eurostoxx is climbing 0.3%, driven by the technology sector. In this sense, Sage Group is rising more than 13% in London after reporting a favorable growth expectation for fiscal year 2024. Asia closed mixed, with the Shanghai down 0.8% and the Nikkei up 0.3%

Sovereign fixed income, currencies and commodities

- Positive balance in sovereign bonds. European 10-year rates trade with gains of up to 3bps. Meanwhile, the Treasuries yield curve trades with gains of 1bp concentrated on the long-end. Yesterday, the Mbonos' curve closed with losses of 7bps on average and the 10-year benchmark at 9.52% (+7bps)
- The dollar trades with a positive bias (BBDXY +0.2%) as most advanced and EM currencies weaken. In the first group, trading is capped by AUD (+0.2%) and NOK (-0.4%). In the second, BRL (+0.1%) and KRW (-0.9%) are at the ends of the spectrum. The Mexican peso appreciates 0.1% to trade at 17.18 per dollar and remains below its 100-day MA
- Crude-oil futures fall 1.2% on signs of higher US production. Metals are mixed, with industrials falling and precious metals advancing

Moreover, we also state that we have not received, nor receive, or will receive compensation other than that of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. for the provision of our services.

Relevant statements.

In accordance with current laws and internal procedures manuals, analysts are allowed to hold long or short positions in shares or securities issued by companies that are listed on the Mexican Stock Exchange and may be the subject of this report; nonetheless, equity analysts have to adhere to certain rules that regulate their participation in the market in order to prevent, among other things, the use of private information for their benefit and to avoid conflicts of interest. Analysts shall refrain from investing and holding transactions with securities or derivative instruments directly or through an intermediary person, with Securities subject to research reports, from 30 calendar days prior to the issuance date of the report in question, and up to 10 calendar days after its distribution date.

Compensation of Analysts.

Analysts' compensation is based on activities and services that are aimed at benefiting the investment clients of Casa de Bolsa Banorte and its subsidiaries. Such compensation is determined based on the general profitability of the Brokerage House and the Financial Group and on the individual performance of each analyst. However, investors should note that analysts do not receive direct payment or compensation for any specific transaction in investment banking or in other business areas.

Last-twelve-month activities of the business areas.

Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. de C.V., through its business areas, provides services that include, among others, those corresponding to investment banking and corporate banking, to a large number of companies in Mexico and abroad. It may have provided, is providing or, in the future, will provide a service such as those mentioned to the companies or firms that are the subject of this report. Casa de Bolsa Banorte or its affiliates receive compensation from such corporations in consideration of the aforementioned services.

Over the course of the last twelve months, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V., has not obtained compensation for services rendered by the investment bank or by any of its other business areas of the following companies or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed within this report.

Activities of the business areas during the next three months.

Casa de Bolsa Banorte, Grupo Financiero Banorte or its subsidiaries expect to receive or intend to obtain revenue from the services provided by investment banking or any other of its business areas, by issuers or their subsidiaries, some of which could be analyzed in this report.

Securities holdings and other disclosures.

As of the end of last quarter, Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. has not held investments, directly or indirectly, in securities or derivative financial instruments, whose underlying securities are the subject of recommendations, representing 1% or more of its investment portfolio of outstanding securities or 1 % of the issuance or underlying of the securities issued.

Guide for investment recommendations.

	Reference
BUY	When the share expected performance is greater than the MEXBOL estimated performance.
HOLD	When the share expected performance is similar to the MEXBOL estimated performance.
SELL	When the share expected performance is lower than the MEXBOL estimated performance.

Even though this document offers a general criterion of investment, we urge readers to seek advice from their own Consultants or Financial Advisors, in order to consider whether any of the values mentioned in this report are in line with their investment goals, risk and financial position.

Determination of Target Prices

For the calculation of estimated target prices for securities, analysts use a combination of methodologies generally accepted among financial analysts, including, but not limited to, multiples analysis, discounted cash flows, sum-of-the-parts or any other method that could be applicable in each specific case according to the current regulation. No guarantee can be given that the target prices calculated for the securities will be achieved by the analysts of Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. C.V, since this depends on a large number of various endogenous and exogenous factors that affect the performance of the issuing company, the environment in which it performs, along with the influence of trends of the stock market, in which it is listed. Moreover, the investor must consider that the price of the securities or instruments can fluctuate against their interest and cause the partial and even total loss of the invested capital.

The information contained hereby has been obtained from sources that we consider to be reliable, but we make no representation as to its accuracy or completeness. The information, estimations and recommendations included in this document are valid as of the issue date, but are subject to modifications and changes without prior notice; Grupo Financiero Banorte S.A.B. of C.V. does not commit to communicate the changes and also to keep the content of this document updated.
