Quarterly Report

Solid progress in all business lines

- Significant growth in the Proximity segment. Oxxo's performance reflects continued resilience in consumer spending as commercial strategies could continue to drive expansion
- Positive outlook, while continuing to consolidate the digital business.
 Based on the good results, the FV/EBITDA valuation was lowered to 8.5x (vs. 9.7x previously). We reaffirm it as one of our favorites

Proximity continues to drive growth, while outlook remains positive as longterm strategies move forward. The company reported operating figures in line with expectations, while earnings already included the divestment of Heineken. Revenues reached MXN 198.2 billion (+18.3% y/y), supported by the growth of the Proximity America division of +19.9% y/y (+15.3% in SSS), reflecting increases of +7.4% y/y in average ticket and traffic, as well as a strong performance of the gathering occasions category; in addition, the important opening of 444 units was recorded, consolidating a total of 22,059 Oxxo stores. Health remained practically unchanged at +0.6% y/y, while Fuels increased +9.3% y/y. EBITDA reached MXN 27.1 billion (+16.1% y/y) with a margin of 13.7% (-0.3pp), reflecting higher labor costs that resulted in a contraction of Proximity (-0.8pp) and Fuels (-0.4pp), while Health had an expansion (+0.5pp) and Kof had a marginal positive variation (+0.1pp). Finally, net income reached MXN 6.2 billion (+18.3% y/y), which is mainly explained by the following factors combined with the performance of the following divisions: (1) Nonoperating income of MXN 9.4 billion arising from the divestiture of Jetro Restaurant Depot; (2) a foreign exchange loss of MXN 6.5 billion and; (3) a net loss from discontinued operations of MXN 3.9 billion due to the market value of the Heineken shares underlying Femsa's exchangeable bond. Expansion should continue as margin pressures ease and business strategies consolidate. We maintain favorable expectations given the potential of the digital business and the strong organic expansion of Proximity. Additionally, FV/EBITDA valuation remains attractive at 8.5x (vs. U3A average of 9.6x). Financial strength stands out with a ND/EBITDA at 1.2x vs. previous at 2.0x, opening the possibility of extraordinary dividends, share buybacks or acquisitions that could be interesting.
